

Union Budget 2024: Janjatiya Unnat Gram Abhiyan to improve socio-economic conditions of tribals

Synopsis

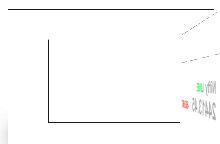

The programme aims at achieving saturation coverage for tribal families in tribal-majority villages and aspirational districts, Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman said during her budget speech. The programme will cover 63,000 tribal villages, benefitting 5 crore tribals, she said.

SECTIONS

Union Budget 2024: Janjatiya Unnat Gram Abhiyan to improve socio-economic conditions of tribals

The government on Tuesday announced the Pradhan Mantri Janjatiya Unnat Gram Abhiyan for improving the socio-economic conditions of tribal communities in the country. The programme aims at achieving saturation coverage for tribal families in tribal-majority villages and aspirational districts, Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman said during her budget speech.

The programme will cover 63,000 tribal villages, benefitting 5 crore tribals, she said.

#Budget' 2024 with ET

What's cheaper and what's costlier? Here's the list

New slabs announced in new income tax regime

(You can now subscribe to our Economic Times WhatsApp channel)

