Protesters urged school staff to refrain from opening the premises, with teachers maintaining a silent stance in one corner of the compound. Despite the issue being reported to the District Education Department, no officials or school inspectors have been seen at the site, fueling growing frustration among the guardians.

The locality continues to seek intervention from authorities, emphasizing the impact of the transfer on students' education.

Major tribal welfare campaign to launch in South district

Observer Reporter

Khowai: Jun 13. As part of the Dharitri Abha Janajati Gram Utkarsh Abhiyan, the Pradhan Mantri Janajati Adhibashi Naya Maha Abhiyan is set to launch in South District on June 15. Minister Shukla Charan Noatia will inaugurate the campaign at Ratanpur ADC Village in Hrishyamukh Block under Belonia Subdivision.

In a press conference held at the District Magistrate's office this afternoon, District Magistrate Mohammad Sajad P emphasized that the initiative aims to improve the socio-economic conditions of tribal communities and accelerate development in ADC areas. He stated that the campaign will cover approximately 63,000 villages across the district, benefiting over 5 crore tribal citizens.

Officials and employees from key departments, including the Food Department, Fisheries Department, and Animal Resources Development Department (ARDD), will participate in the event, offering services such as Aadhaar card registration, health insurance enrollment, and ration card assistance.

The District Magistrate called for collective support to ensure the campaign's success, urging stakeholders to contribute to the upliftment of tribal communities.
